

PERTH
Running Festival

Run your destiny

PERTH Running Festival

"FOLLOW IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF LEGENDS, IT'S YOUR DESTINY"

2nd August
2026

Race Information Pack

Where and When?

Date – Sunday 2nd August 2026

Start/Finish Location – Perth Racecourse Scone Palace Park, Perth, Scotland PH2 6BB

Separate Female and Male shower/changing and toilet facilities are available at the Start/Finish.

Who is it for?

Perth Half Marathon

Route:

This event is open to participants of all abilities aged over 18. With a fully paved, traffic free, flat route offering some stunning views, it's the perfect option for both experienced and beginner runners.

Destiny 7.5km Run

Route:

This event is open to participants of all abilities aged over 17. With a fully paved, traffic free, out and back route crossing the New Destiny Bridge over the River Tay, it's the perfect option for both experienced and beginner runners looking for a stepping stone to a 10km event.

8 Furlong Fun Run 1 mile

Open to all ages and abilities – this is perfect for kids, beginner runners, or spectators who want to join in the excitement of the day. Young children must be accompanied by an adult throughout.

What's included

Finishers Medal, branded race memento, chip timing, photography, finish line catering and festival vibes.

Itinerary

Sunday 2nd August

Registration: – Sunday 2nd August

07:30 – 09:10– Perth Racecourse

Perth Half Marathon Race: Start – 9:30am

Destiny 7.5km : Race Start – 9:40am

8 Furlong Fun Run: Start – 9:45am

Race Numbers will be posted to the address given when you registered, they will arrive approximately 4 day's before race day on the 2nd August, .

Please Bring a reusable cup or wear a hydration pack if you can as there will be limited single use cups on the course to reduce waste and litter.

Results: The full official results will be posted on our Facebook site and on the day via our timing partners ProTay's website <https://protay.co.uk/events/perth-running-festival/>

Parking:

There is plenty parking available at Perth Racecourse for all types of vehicles including larger vehicles and motorhomes, please follow instructions from the Parking Attendants. There is NO OVERNIGHT parking available on site.

Course etiquette:

We do not have exclusive use of the paths please be considerate to other path users, we would ask that you run on the LEFT-HAND SIDE of the paths.

Keeping to the left will allow everyone to pass each other on the return leg safely.

General Information

Toilets at Start:

You will find toilets at the start area behind the old grandstand to your left as you enter the start/finish area please refrain from using the toilets in the main grandstand.

There will be male and female toilets with sanitary products available.

Course etiquette:

We do not have exclusive use of the paths please be considerate to other path users, we would ask that you run on the LEFT-HAND SIDE of the paths.

Keeping to the left will allow everyone to pass each other on the return leg safely.

Fancy Dress:

You can dress in anything you want as long as it covers the vital parts (it may be cold!) we would love to see you put a smile on our faces and if it's for a charity all the better.

Aid Station and There will be water, coke and energy drinks available on the half marathon route ONLY. The aid station will be within North Inches at the Lyndoch Monument which will be visited twice.

Change Bag: A gazebo or secure area will be available close to the start/finish line for a change bag. Please do not leave valuables in your change bag. Volunteers and event organisers will not be responsible for the loss of any valuables.

